COMPETITION RULES FOR THE R & A FOURSOMES TROPHY

- The Handicap limit is 28 (combined 56).
- The Stroke Allowance is half of the difference of the combined handicaps.
- The Top name in the draw is the person responsible for making contact and providing three possible dates.
- If after agreeing a date to play their match, anyone being unable to meet this date and after discussion with their opponents, are unable to fix another date, the original agreed date will stand and the match must be conceded.
- I am sorry but there will be NO extensions allowed after the closing dates that are shown on the draw sheet.
- If it is completely impossible for any of the players to be able to agree a date – before the closing date – the player standing on the 1st Tee at 6.00pm on the final date of that round will be entitled to claim the match, provided he has evidence of his presence. ie from the Pro's Shop, The Office or even the Bar.
- If a competitor finds out that he or his partner is unable to make the Finals Day after the competition has started then he and his partner should scratch from the competition at that point and their opponents for the next round should get a bye into the next round.
- If on the Finals Day – a player is involved in more than 1 final or has a valid reason for not being able to play, then with the agreement of the opponents, the final may be played BEFORE the 25th September (Finals Day)

Rules effective from 2011
